

Federal Family Education Loan Update

The student loan industry has experienced quite a few changes in the last year. Several lenders have made the decision to change their participation in one or more loan programs for various reasons.

The levels of participation may vary from temporarily suspending to permanently exiting one or more loan programs (Stafford, PLUS, Consolidation and/or Alternative lending). Students and parents may obtain additional information regarding changes in the student loan industry, lender participation and updates at FinAid.org (<http://www.finaid.org/loans/lenderlayoffs.phtml>).

The Office of Student Financial Aid wants assure you that we remain committed to assisting you with your educational loan needs and continue to provide borrowers with as many choices as possible.
